

Egerton Rothesay School

SPEECH AND LANGUAGE THERAPY ASSISTANT

Full time (part time would be considered for a suitable candidate)

Contract: Permanent

ERS is an independent day school catering for up to 180 students between the ages of 6-19 who have a range of academic abilities and special educational needs. Most, but not all our pupils have Educational Health and Care Plans (EHCP).

We are looking for an enthusiastic and motivated therapy assistant to join our experienced therapy team providing specialist support for pupils.

Experience/interest of working with children and young people with a range of speech, language and communication needs, specific learning difficulties and ASD is desirable.

We offer excellent support from colleagues and staff, with regular supervision and access to internal and external training. We work in a multidisciplinary approach where therapists work with teachers to enhance the learning process of each individual student.

Main Purpose of Job

- To run small groups planned and overseen by a Speech and Language Therapist, with a view to contributing to planning over time.
- To deliver Speech and Language Therapy programmes, planned and overseen by Speech and Language Therapist.
- To support Speech and Language Therapists with 1:1 work where required
- To work in class to promote the integration of strategies into classroom practice.
- To keep clear and accurate case notes and records of group interventions.
- To support Speech and Language Therapists with administrative tasks such as preparing report templates, preparing IPP templates, filing and resource preparation.

Egerton Rothesay School is committed to safeguarding children and successful candidates will be subject to a Disclosure & Barring Service check.
